

EDPY 597 Program Evaluation

Gail Vallance Barrington is a graduate of McGill University (BA) and Carleton University (MA) and holds a Doctorate in Educational Administration from the University of Alberta (1981). She is a Credentialed Evaluator and a certified teacher. In 2014, she was made a Fellow of the Certified Management Consultants of Canada. Since starting her consulting practice in 1985 she has conducted over 130 program evaluation studies mainly in the fields of education and health. She recently completed a two-year term as Vice President of the Canadian Evaluation Society, responsible for the Professional Designation Programs. She teaches courses in qualitative research and program evaluation for several universities. Her 2012 book, Consulting Start-up and Management: A Guide for Evaluators and Applied Researchers continues to be popular. In 2008 she received the Canadian Evaluation Society award for her Contribution to Evaluation in Canada and in 2016 was honoured to receive the American Evaluation Association Alva and Gunnar Myrdal Award for Evaluation Practice.

For more information see www.barringtonresearchgrp.com.