PLEASE SUBMIT NOMINATIONS FOR THIS YEAR'S EXCELLENCE IN SUPERVISION AWARD

The Psychologists' Association of Alberta (PAA) is currently calling for nominations for the Excellence In Supervision Award. The award is not a monetary award, however it is intended to be presented on an annual basis to a chartered psychologist whose performance in supervising one or more individuals in any practice area (counselling/clinical, assessment) is deemed exemplary during the previous two-year period (March 1, 2004 - March 1, 2006).

One nominator is required, although two are desirable. Nominators may be former/current students or supervisees of the supervisor and/or individuals familiar with the supervisor's practice (e.g., colleagues). Nominators may or may not be PAA members.

All nominations will be reviewed by the PAA Awards Committee who will also choose the recipient. Both recipient and nominator(s) will be invited to the annual awards banquet being held on May 12, 2006 in Edmonton, Alberta. Deadline for submission to the PAA office is 4:00 p.m. on Friday, March 3, 2006.

Possible criteria to consider in terms of this award include the following (not necessarily exhaustive):

- contributes to personal and professional development of supervisee
- availability for consultation, training, emergencies
- ability to align with supervisee's needs and personal approach
- ability to offer diverse and appropriate options for various assessments/treatment/ethical situations
- knowledgeable in terms of psychological theory, techniques, approaches, and practical suggestions
- able to provide creative/flexible approaches to delivery of supervision
- provision of constructive feedback that is related to both corrective/critical appraisal as well as to validation of good student practice
